STORY SO FAR
Joukyuu was called to a certain country in Eastern Europe. Embroiled in conflict with the local resistance, trying to keep intelligence hidden, Houju tours E-country for "uranium ores".
Joukyuu, who had a map of the uranium mine, lost it while sustaining an injury in battle. Meanwhile, Veronica gave the stolen intel to HQ.
Veronica is cornered when a General from HQ visits to "monitor" her. Just as the General is about to attack, Joukyuu retreats from sight, getting ready to make his move.
After being attacked and incidentally reducing HQ's reinforcements to nothing, it's time for Joukyuu to counterattack.
General
Real name: Lt. Douglas. Head of the Knights HQ. Has come to observe the slow progress of Veronica's plan.
Gouta
Along with the General, she's a member of the Knights HQ. She uses giant shurikens to knock around enemies from a distance.
KUNITOSHI'S DISCIPLES
Baiboa
Childhood was destroyed when she was "recruited" by Joukyuu. Uses a curved sword.
Bull
Leader of a high school gang of delinquents in Japan. Picked up by Joukyuu on a whim.
Akemi Kageyasu
Became Joukyuu's disciple back in high school. Uses a jutte.
Kunitoshi Joukyuu
A natural master of martial arts. His father, considering him dangerous, put "shackles on his body, so he can only use a fraction of his potential.
THE 3 HOUJU SISTERS
Leiulia
Her strength is still rather low, so she uses small throwing knives instead of a sword.
Shizuku
Master of Iaido*. Likes Kunitoshi.
Mariene
A bit impatient and reckless. Dual-wields blades.
Kaneoto Houju
A blademaster known as "The Showa Legend". Makes use of a variety of sword techniques.
*TN: Iaido - art of drawing a Japanese sword, slicing your enemy to bits, then sheathing it again faster than the animators can draw it.
